

Ethical Policy

Confidentiality We are committed to maintaining the highest degree of integrity in our dealings with all potential and existing customers, suppliers and contractors. Both in terms of normal commercial confidentiality, and the protection of all personal information received in the course of providing the business services concerned.

Ethics We conduct our business honestly and honourably, and expect our customers and suppliers to do the same, taking proper account of ethical considerations, together with the protection and enhancement of the moral position of our customers and suppliers.

Duty of care Our actions and advice will always conform to relevant law, and we believe that all businesses and organizations should avoid causing any adverse effect on the human rights of people in the organizations we deal with, the local and wider environments, and the well-being of society at large. Precision Products (Brighton) Ltd will ensure local legislation regarding health and safety are adhered to.

Equality and discrimination We always strive to be fair and objective in our advice and actions, and are never influenced in our decisions, actions or recommendations by issues of gender, race, creed, colour, age or personal disability.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "S. Thorley".

Sally Thorley
Managing Director
June 2017